

Senior Impact Management / M&E Consultant (m/f/d)

Your contact › Tatjana Mauthofer › jobs@mainlevel.de

At Mainlevel, we are convinced that it is the people in our team who drive the quality and innovation of our work. As we grow, we are on the lookout for a senior consultant to enrich our teams in Frankfurt am Main and Berlin with their experience, dedication, and team spirit.

About us

Established in 2016, Mainlevel provides consultancy in Monitoring & Evaluation (M&E), impact management and digitalisation. We enable organisations in the public, private and NGO sector to increase the efficiency, outreach, and impact of their interventions with learning-oriented monitoring and evaluation and targeted digital solutions. We believe in the potential of evidence-based decision-making and ICT4D to help make sustainable development more effective, more innovative, and more inclusive.

Our interdisciplinary team of M&E consultants and digital consultants works together closely on assignments for a wide range of clients including GIZ, KfW, the EU, UN agencies and a growing number of NGOs as well as other international organisations. From conducting evaluations, baseline studies or gender analyses towards identifying and implementing digital solutions that support projects and make a difference in people's lives, we are proud of the diversity of professional expertise we can offer to our clients - to help them be more effective, more accountable, and more impactful throughout their interventions.

Your challenge

In your position as senior M&E consultant, you are responsible for driving forward M&E and organizational development projects of interventions and organisations. You support your clients, in a team or alone, by providing evaluation and applied research services, as well as support to monitoring systems and processes. Your tasks include:

- › Implementation of evaluations and studies, including the development of a research design, data collection and reporting.
- › Conceptualization of monitoring systems, including goal and indicator formulation.
- › Implementation of (on-site) quantitative and qualitative data collection and data analysis.
- › Project management including the management of evaluation teams.
- › Acquisition of new opportunities within and beyond M&E, digitalisation and organizational development.
- › Application of digital tools at different stages of project implementation
- › Support to other assignments when needed, mutual learning and support among colleagues.

Your benefits

- › A chance to contribute to an energetic organization with an impactful mission.
- › A fast growing and highly motivated, interdisciplinary team
- › Working in exciting international projects, both in the global North and South
- › A wide range of possibilities to bring in your skills, creativity and ideas.
- › Responsibility for independent project management from the very beginning
- › Internal trainings and team-building activities, incl. a joint sports membership

Your qualities

- › An academic background (M.A./M.Sc. or PhD) in international economics / business/ politics, international relations, psychology or any related field of studies
- › At least 5 years of practical experience in international development, the public sector or in a consultancy.
- › In-depth knowledge of methods of empirical social research as well as their practical application.
- › Implementation of quantitative and qualitative data collection in countries of the global North and South.
- › Enthusiasm for innovation and learning, ready and willing to take gradually increasing responsibilities.
- › Having a consultant mindset: results-oriented, creative and with attention to quality.
- › Team spirit, strong communication skills and intercultural competence.
- › Language skills: fluency in English, knowledge of other languages (particularly German, French, Spanish and Arabic) is an advantage.

Your application

The challenges outlined above speak to you and you'd like to bring in your expertise and enthusiasm to tackle them as part of our team? Then we are looking forward to your application (cover letter, CV and references) which you may address to Tatjana Mauthofer (jobs@mainlevel.de).

We welcome applications from all suitably qualified candidates, irrespective of gender, disability, marital or parental status, ethnic or social origin, religion, belief, or sexual orientation. Please note that we only accept applications from individuals - not by recruitment agencies.
